Before officers entered the building, a male subject was observed exiting a side door of the business holding a pry bar, and hammer. The officers ordered him to drop the tools and to lie on the ground, to which he complied. He was handcuffed and identified as Zachary Snyder.

Officers later determined that a cash register inside the business had been pried open. The owners reported that no cash is stored inside the register. The register itself was destroyed and would have to be replaced.

Officers learned that Snyder had an electronic bench warrant (EBW) issued by Concord District Court for failing to appear for operating after deemed an habitual offender. The EBW was issued on October 29, 2014.
